CONTENTS

Personnel of the institute of phonetics .................. II
Publications by staff members in 1976 .................. III
Lectures and courses in 1976 ............................. IV
Instrumental equipment of the laboratory ............... VIII
Abbreviations employed in references .................. IX

On the interpretation of raw fundamental frequency tracings
(Nina Thorsen) ........................................... 1

On the notion "strength" of coarticulation
(R.A.W. Bladon) ........................................ 13

Retroflex and dental consonants in Gujarati.
A palatographic and acoustic study
(Radhekant Dave) ....................................... 27

Can phonological descriptions be made more realistic?
(Jørgen Rischel) ....................................... 157

Thoughts on analogy and some problems in interpreting phonological experiments
(Paul Over) ........................................... 171