BRASILIANA

Brasiliana is a biannual journal that intends to be a dynamic academic forum where scholars from diverse disciplines in Humanities and Social Sciences are invited to publish their research, to establish academic discussion, exchange ideas and draw on each others' research within the field of Brazilian Studies. This is a journal entirely dedicated to Brazilian Studies.

Information Disclaimer: Articles published in Brasiliana are submitted to a double-blind peer review procedure. The editors of each issue moderate and supervise the review process, and authors are able to follow each step of it.

This journal provides immediate open access to its content on the principle that making research freely available to the public supports a greater global exchange of knowledge.
