

Bibliography of Scandinavian Political Science: 1971

This bibliography is a review of Scandinavian political science for 1971. It is a continuation of earlier bibliographies in Scandinavian Political Studies, and therefore, an attempt has been made to include earlier publications omitted in previous volumes. We have included:

- 1) publications of native and foreign authors printed in Denmark, Finland, Norway, and Sweden,
- 2) publications by Scandinavian authors printed in other countries, and
- 3) other publications which deal with different aspects of Scandinavian political life.

The bibliography includes references to books, contributions to joint works, and periodicals, as well as committee reports and other official government documents which make a contribution to less explored areas of political science in Scandinavia. Reviews appearing in periodicals are listed under the appropriate book, article, etc.

The entries in this bibliography have been compiled and classified in their respective countries: in Denmark by Lone MØRUP and Ib FAURBY, in Finland by Erkki HUSU, and in Sweden by Svante HANSSON. The undersigned is responsible for the collection and classification of the Norwegian entries, as well as the final editing of the bibliography. The national editors have sought to attain a high degree of uniformity in the classification of entries by following as closely as possible the classification scheme in the International Bibliography of Political Science published by UNESCO.

We would like to thank our national editors in Denmark, Finland, and Sweden for their cooperation and express our thanks to Jan Petter MYKLEBUST for much needed technical assistance, and to Jørgen ELKLIT for his support.
